CHOCOLATE

The big chocolate variety, all of course organic + fair

30 YEARS OF HAND-SCOOPED CHOCOLATES. The very first hand-scooped chocolates were created in 1992, and at the time, this way of manufacturing chocolate was completely new. Without any moulds, we spread chocolate and fillings on long tracks, layer by layer, in order to develop new flavours, combine existing ones and create the odd flavour explosion. The 70-gram shape was also new, as were Andreas H. Gratz's designs for the chocolate wrappers. Those little pieces of art always stand out with their humour and their stylistic virtuosity. None of this has changed since, making our hand-scooped chocolates as unique as they are.

Hand-scooped chocolates are in focus this season. Together with my daughter Julia, we've again created many new hand-scooped flavours: classics like Poppy Seed & Cherry and Vanilla + Crisps and innovative flavours like PawPaw hailing from the South Tyrol. New in our range are also many hand-scooped chocolate minis and mini gifts like Thank You or Stress Stopper. And our Mitzi Blue appears in an entirely new design, featuring small product images on the wrappers.

All in all, we produce around 500 different chocolate flavours. We love our variety: hand-scooped chocolates, pure Labookos, drinking chocolates, fine flavour mini light bulb couvertures, colourfully decorated Mitzi chocolate discs, chocolate-covered fruit and nuts as Balleros, and much, much more. We employ around 220 people in our family business, who make all those sweet dreams a reality by hand.

30 years of hand-scooped chocolates!

In 1992, the first ever hand-scooped chocolates were created in the back room of your patisserie in Graz, Austria. What flavour were they and how did it all begin?

Josef Zotter: Innovation is often borne out of the need for solutions. That's what happened with our hand-scooped chocolates. We were already producing bonbons and chocolates at our patisserie, but we did it the classic way, using casting moulds. At the time I received a large order which I wouldn't have been able to fulfil in time as I didn't have enough moulds. So I had the idea to make one large chocolate bar and just break it up into smaller ones. I spread the chocolate onto a large board, sprinkled it with pumpkin seeds and spices and then added layer upon layer. Our client was absolutely delighted, some journalists even dropped by, and everyone wanted to know exactly what my process was. I tried to explain it to people simply, so I said: layer by layer, just like with hand-scooped paper (handmade + scoop) – and that's how my idea got its name.

30 years of hand-scooped chocolates. How many formulas and new recipes does that make over the years?

Josef Zotter: Oh, that'll be a lot, I would guess we must have created around 1500 recipes at this point.

You tend to develop new flavours together with your daughter Julia. Don't you ever run out of ideas?

Josef Zotter: No, because the spectrum is so versatile. Julia also often introduces new trends. That's the beauty of two generations working together. And the energy and drive in our product development definitely come from her.

Julia Zotter: Compared to 30 years ago, we now have the advantage of being able to produce each layer ourselves. We create everything in-house: the chocolate, the fruity fillings, the pralines, caramel, marzipan and the brown butter toffee. We are able to come up with textures which wouldn't have been possible 30 years ago. We are also a social enterprise focused on transparency, organic and fair trade products and environmental protection. That's something worth dedicating your life to.

The special anniversary choco

We love developing new chocolates and are dedicated to constant research – that's our passion. In our bean-to-bar factory, we produce each chocolate from the cacao bean to the finished chocolate bar, and we also insist on fair traded, organic cacao of the highest quality. We regularly travel to the cacao growing regions in order to meet our cacao producers. Julia has just recently been to the Caribbean, the Dominican Republic and also to the African nations of Ghana, Togo, São Tomé and Príncipe, Tanzania and Uganda.

Our family business counts among the most sustainable businesses in Austria: our entire production line is organic and fair because we care about what happens to humans and our environment. 100% of our production runs on green energy, we use environmentally friendly packaging, all our employees are offered a free, organic lunch menu, and much more.

We hope you live on the sweet side of life!

The Filled Chocolate Wonders – The Original

Hand-scooped is a mixture of inventiveness and manual work. The hand-scooped chocolates are filled chocolates. The fillings are spread in layers on long tracks. During this process up to 6 different layers are combined and coated all around with chocolate. By combining different ingredients such as marzipan and cherry brandy, something new is created all the time – ideally a flavour explosion. Thanks to the wonderful compositions of taste and their unique design the hand-scooped chocolates have turned into a cult.

Drinking Chocolate

The Big Bang of the Chocolate Culture

Xocolatl was the liquid gold of the Incas, Mayas and Aztecs. Josef Zotter revitalises the origin of the chocolate culture and composes innovative variations of drinking chocolates that bathe in hot milk in the form of small chocolate bars. The hot drinks are available in many varieties and colours. And in summer one can also enjoy the drinking chocolates on ice, as cold drinks. We offer pretty drinking sets for the perfect presentation.

TIP: THE CHOCO MIX

Pour 200-300ml hot milk or your vegan drink of choice in a blender, add a bar of drinking chocolate and wait 1 minute until the chocolate starts melting. Mix it on a low setting first and finish blending with a quick blitz so you get some proper foam on it, which makes it look particularly pretty. You can decorate your drink with some milk foam.

IN·FUSION

THE WONDERFUL, FRUITY WORLD OF CACAO

Chocolate enhanced with fruit couvertures

70 g bar
Available in 6 varieties

Inspired by flowery wine tasting notes raving about hints of cherry aroma or echoes of blackcurrants and dark berries, we thought it would be great if everyone could experience similarly fruity flavour spectacles. Our new chocolate range features chocolate classics infused with genuine fruit, so the cherry aroma will no longer remain a hint. In trade vernacular, melting together chocolate and fruit couverture is called an infusion, which subsequently leads to an aroma explosion. Cacao naturally possesses enormously varied flavour bouquets. More than 600 are known at this point, most of them fruit or citrus aromas. We strengthen our cacao's natural aroma profile with fruit couverture. Experience dark and milk chocolates accompanied by raspberries, oranges, cherries, cranberries and blackcurrants. The new classics with an indulgent fruity flavour.

The Praline Bar with Whole Nuts

Whole hazelnuts on a homemade almond nougat, in milk chocolate. A little bit of Guarana provides an energy boost, and a pinch of salt is the secret ingredient for toning down the overall sweetness a tad. The silhouette of little nut hills in the chocolate inspired us to name this delicious creation "Nutting Hill", a praline snack with crunchy, nutty peaks.

Choco with Nuts

Choco with Nuts features a crunchy chocolate delight.

A lot of nuts dip into chocolate and entice with a great design. A top combination: first-class, pure chocolate with roughly chopped nuts, or also fruity and playful with raisins. Crunchy, fine, chocolatey and cool - the chocolate with an edge for nut and pleasure fans. The crunchy chocolate with nuts.
